INTRODUCTION.

VIGOROSO.

VOICE.

1. God and our Rights! From every glen Come marching
 2. God and your Rights! On, Brothers on, Leave in your

PIANO.

ranks of fear-less men, Sons of those who fought and fields the ripe-ning corn, Leave in its fur-row the i-dle died On Chalmette's plain, by Jackson's side, Prompt as their plough For other works be-fore you now, Stand to your sires to do, to dare Their cry as they come is rend-ing the air, arms gird on the blade Cheerily cry out un-dis-mayed,

AIR.

God and our Rights! God and our Rights God and our Rights!

ALTO.

God and our Rights! God and our Rights God and our Rights!

TENOR.

God and our Rights! God and our Rights God and our Rights!

BASSE.

God and our Rights! God and our Rights God and our Rights!

PIANO.

5th

God and our Rights! It was their cry,
 When your fathers of old went forth to die,
 Right was with them, and God their trust
 When the hirelings of tyranny bit the dust,
 They conquered in death and so shall we,
 Men of the South, ne'er bend the knee!
 God and our Rights!

4th

Hearts of the South, though peace no more
 May visit again your sunny shore,
 Yield no inch of your dear bought right,
 Yield if you yield, a life in the fight,
 And as with your feet to the foe you lie,
 Let the red field echo your last, deep cry
 God and our Rights!
